Cary It Green

Holiday Collection

In observance of Labor Day, curbside waste, recycling, and yard waste collections move one day later the week of September 5. The Citizen's Convenience Center will be closed on Mon, Sep 5.

Fall LITTER SWEEP Volunteers Needed!

Join us for some fresh air and sunshine while we remove litter from Cary's streets, parks, and neighborhoods on Sat, Oct 1. Great for volunteers of all ages and groups of any size, register for an existing site or gather a group and select a site of your own. Cary will provide all the needed tools and supplies. Multiple sites and shifts available. Search "litter" at myCary.org to register.

My Tree, Our Tree: Fall Giveaway

Enhance your landscape and add to our community's canopy by planting a tree in your yard this fall. Registered participants will receive a free native tree and planting kit at the My Tree, Our Tree event on Sat, Oct 15. Registration opens Sep 15 at 9 a.m. For more info and to register, visit townofcary.org/MyTreeOurTree.

Fall Tree Talks: Planting and Pruning

The Tree Talk series continues this fall with a free virtual session "Tree Planting Tips." On Wed, Oct 19 from 12:30-1 p.m., a certified arborist will share best practices for planting trees to help ensure they thrive in your yard. And for your trees that need pruning, come walk the grounds of Jack Smith Park as our arborist demonstrates proper tree pruning tips on Sat, Oct 29 from 10 a.m.-noon. Register through myCary.org for Planting Tips and Pruning.

Lights Out! Cary is for the Birds

Cary is teaming up with the Audubon Society this fall, and you can too! Billions of birds are migrating, and you can help them make their trip safely by going Lights Out. Between now and Nov 30, join us in reducing lighting at night to help prevent bird window collisions by taking simple steps such as turning off any "up lighting," turning off any non-essential lighting, and closing blinds/curtains each evening. Learn more at townofcary.org/green.

Sewer Rehabilitation Along Black Creek Greenway

With the Crabtree Creek Greenway now reopened to the public, Cary's sewer rehabilitation project turns to the Black Creek Greenway. First up, the section of the trail between W Dynasty Drive and North Cary Park is currently closed to the public with a signed detour in place. Once complete, this section will reopen and a similar closure and detour will take place north of North Cary Park. For more information on greenway closures and detours in the area, visit carygreenwaydetour.com.

Wastewater Report

Curious about what happens to the wastewater that goes down the drain? Get the facts in our Annual Wastewater Report. The report summarizes our system's performance and provides quick facts, descriptions of our treatment facilities, and tips to keep the system working smoothly and the environment free from sewer spills. We are proud that our system continues to surpass federal and state requirements to protect your health and the environment. Visit townofcary.org/wastewaterreport to see the full report. Printed copies are also available at Cary facilities, Morrisville Town Hall, and at Cary libraries. Citizens may request a copy by mail by calling 311.
