

MLK JR DREAMFEST 2018

Every year we recognize and celebrate the life, work, and vision of Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Join us this year for programs from Jan. 13-15. All events are free and open to the public:

Kids Sing & Learn

Learn the songs that animated the struggle for equality in this family-friendly sing along at the Cary Arts Center, 10 a.m. Jan. 13. Kids may be invited to showcase the songs at the evening cultural performance.

Film: Racial Taboo

Join us for a showing of Racial Taboo, a documentary by Brian Grimm that looks at our history using candid interviews and comedy, at the Cary Arts Center, 1 p.m. Jan. 13. Group discussions and debrief with Grimm will follow the film.

Jazz: We Shall Overcome

Join us for the world premier of jazz composer Harold Mims' We Shall Overcome at the Cary Arts Center, 7:30 p.m. Jan. 13. The Triangle Jazz Band, led by jazz drummer Kobie Watkins, will perform this composition, written for Dreamfest, along with featured saxophone soloist Dr. Ron Carter. Also, enjoy songs led by Songs of the Dream participants and other youth voices.

Film: 13th

Come to The Cary Theater, 3 p.m. Jan. 14, to view 13th, an award-winning film by Ava DuVernay that provides an in-depth look at the prison system in the U.S. and its relationship to the nation's history of racial inequality. Afterward, N.C. State University faculty member Dr. Thomas Easley, a recognized authority on mass incarceration, will speak.

MLK Day of Service

Take time to give back to your community by helping prepare the soil of our new 20-acre urban agriculture and historic site Jan. 15 at Good Hope Farm, 1580 Morrisville

Carpenter Road. Registration is required for either of the two shifts; the first is from 10 a.m.-noon and the second is from 2-4 p.m. Volunteers ages 15 and younger must be accompanied by an adult. Be prepared to get dirty!

This Year's Hometown Spirit Award Winners are...

Ralph and Daphne Ashworth!

Sixty years of commitment to the success of Cary has earned Ralph and Daphne Ashworth the Town of Cary's annual Hometown Spirit Award, which recognizes community-minded citizens who enhance the quality of life in Cary by preserving, promoting, and carrying out positive, small-town, community values and traits.

Ralph and Daphne have supported local businesses in Cary since they set up Ashworth Drugs in downtown Cary in 1957. Since then, the Ashworths have helped bring other businesses to downtown Cary to thrive in Ashworth Village. Today, they still continue to run their famous hotdog counter because they have seen how valued a gathering place it is for Cary residents over the decades.

Out with the Old

If you've recently replaced an appliance, like a refrigerator or washer, remember to correctly dispose of your old one. You can take them to the Citizen's Convenience Center to be recycled or call us at (919) 469-4090 to schedule curbside pickup; fees may apply. Please secure or remove doors on refrigerators or freezers. If your appliance works, you may also consider donating it to a charity for reuse.
